Mary J. Conine to Mary A. Hurlbut, part of block 2 of the village of Evansville. $200.

May 21, 1891, Janesville Gazette, p. 4, col. 2, Janesville, Wisconsin

Charles Conine passed quietly away Friday afternoon, in his seventy-sixth year.

For over thirty years Mr. Conine has made Evansville his home. Coming with his wife from Sparta, he has identified himself with the unbuilding of the city ever since. About ten years ago his wife was buried in Maple Hill cemetery, and since her death he has made his home with Ellis A. Robinson and family.

The life of Mr. Conine has been a somewhat checkered one, sorrows and trials playing a most important factor. During the breaking out of the civil war, he was one of the first to join an eastern regiment, leaving a young wife and family. Wounded many times in the battles, he at last was captured and spent dreary months in the Libby prison until paroled. Returning to his home, found his wife dead, children separated and he reported killed.

Coming west he lived in Milwaukee for some time, thence at Sparta and finally at Evansville. Three children from his first wife are supposed to be living.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon from the Methodist church. The Knights of Pythias and the Grand Army societies, of which he was a member, attended in a body, the former society having charge of the remains at the grave.
