

Married, in this city, November 25th by Rev. F. B. Norton, Mr. William C. Stevens and Miss Harriet M. Crall, of Center.

November 27, 1868, Janesville Gazette, p. 1, Janesville, Wisconsin

S. D. Fisher and wife, of Brodhead, were in town Tuesday, being called here to attend the funeral of Mr. Fisher's grandmother, Mrs. Catherine Crall, which took place at the Center Church.

"Footville" news, Tuesday, July 22, 1890, The Tribune, p. 1, col. 4, Evansville, Wisconsin

Other

$

ROCK COUNTY GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY
JANESVILLE, WI 53547-0711
<http://www.rootsweb.com/~wirccgs/index.html>

Total due: $ 21.00

P O Box 711

I can report success: The scan was taken from the Amanda Skelly scrapbook, page 7, in the Rock County Historical Society Archives collection. There are many more Crall obits in this scrapbook. Let me know if we can do further checking. Ruth

The newspaper is not identified, nor the date. However our Janesville Gazette death index identifies: death date 4 Feb 1904; 66 yrs old; date publ: 4 Feb 1904: p. 5, c. 3, burial Bethel cemetery; also 6 Feb 1904: p. 5: c. 2; also 8 Feb 1904: p. 5: c. 3

Date: 19 Jan 2011

Research done by: Ruth Anderson

PORTER.

We hear that M. George Burnett has sold his farm for the sum of $66.75 per acre. (Mr. Joshua Crall has also sold his farm for $80 per acre.

November 17, 1893, Enterprise, p. 1, col. 1, Evansville, Wisconsin

Married: At the home of the bride's parents, March 7, at high noon by Rev. Mr. Miner, Miss Jennie Adee and Mr. Seth L. Crall both of the town of Center. The bride's home was six miles each of this city where the wedding occurred and fifty-five persons sat down to the sumptuous dinner. The young couple were handsomely remembered by their friends with many beautiful and well selected presents. Mr. and Mrs. Crall will make their home on the farms of Mr. Elf Crawl in the town of Center. Their many friends will wish them a long, happy and prosperous life.

March 10, 1900, The Badger, p. 1, col. 4, Evansville, Wisconsin

LOCAL YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED IN ROCKFORD

Justina Crall Becomes Bride of Nile McCaffery at Ceremony Performed Friday

Miss Justina Crall, daughter of Seth Crall, became the bride of Nile McCaffery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McCaffery, 263 West Main street, at a ceremony performed at 4 p. m. Friday in the Methodist parsonage, Rockford, Ill., by the Rev. Geoffrey Stafford. The occasion was the 30th wedding anniversary of the bride's parents.

The attendants were Miss Ruth Crall, sister of the bride, and Victor McCaffery, brother of the groom. Following the ceremony the bridal party left on a short trip to Chicago.

The bride, a graduate of the Janesville high school, is employed with the Janesville Printing company. The groom, an employee of the Antes Press, attended the Footville public school and has been prominent in all baseball activities. He played with the Printers in the local Twilight league last year and with the city team in the Southern Wisconsin league during 1927 and 1928.

Mr. and Mrs. McCaffery are making their home in Chicago.

(Continued on last page)

LOCAL YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED IN ROCKFORD

(Continued from first page)

ing their home in the Elizabeth Lehman residence at 121 South Third street. The employees of the Review office join their many friends in wishing the newly weds a most happy and prosperous married life.

March 13, 1930, Evansville Review, p. 1, col. 6 & p. 8, col. 3, Evansville, Wisconsin