

mad, and sealed his fate at Charleston.

MARRIED.

On Thursday, Jan. 26th, at the residence of A. K. Barrett, Esq., Mr. OLIVER BARRETT, of Magnolia, and Miss MARY HOWARD, of Union.

Also, at the same time and place, by the same, Mr. MARTIN HOWARD, of Union, and Miss IRENA L. BARRETT, of Magnolia.

January 28, 1860, Janesville Morning Gazette, p. 4, col. 6, Janesville, Wisconsin

ments.

Capt. C. A. Howard, of Kansas, formerly of Cooksville, Rock Co., is in town. He has been detailed by Maj. Gen. Blunt to recruit "one hundred picked men" for the Battalion which is to constitute the body guard of the Gen. "Fighting men," only, are called for. They will be equipped in a superior manner. One hundred dollars bounty—$25 at the time of mustering—will be given.

Here is an opportunity for brave and true men to join the army of the Frontier, that is about to be led by their gallant General into Texas. A more desirable opportunity is seldom offered. This army has won glory and honor.

Capt. Howard is known in connection with the Kansas troubles, at the breaking out of the rebellion. He has proved himself, in this war, a brave and competent commander—goes into the war for the express purpose of "hurting the enemy."

May 5, 1863, Stoughton Reporter, p. 1, col. 3,

Stoughton, Wisconsin

Seminary Roll of Honor.

The Roll of Honor for the Winter Term of the Evansville Seminary, as is herewith presented, comprises all the Students whose standing is seven or higher, and whose demerits are not over three.

GENTLEMEN.

Richard Adee, B. B. Boynton,
Dwight R. Crowell, James Carville,
George E. Champney, J. Gillies,
Warren Howard, W. H. Hauser,
Adam Luchsinger, C. D. Manning.
George F. Martin, T. Marty,
Geo. H. Brodrick, Wm. T. Nott,
Seth H. Remington, G. R. Mitchel,
Theo'd P. Robinson. Fred H. Spencer,
Frank H. Winston, John M. Tuller,
Hiram J. Tourtlott, Henry A. Tolcott,
Willie Wheeler.

LADIES

Anna G. Burdick, Maggie Bonnett,
Maggie H. Clark, M. Celia Clark,
Dora M. Campbell, Aurora Dibble,
M. M. Davis, Elvira Gilman,
M. A. Hoisington, Julia A. Hersey,
L. Hayward, E. F. Houser,
C. E. Mc Mullen, M. J. Porter,
Ellen Starkweather, R. M. Pike,
M. Amelia Straw, M. E. Slawson,
C. J. West, E. M. Warren,
E. S. Waldron.

March 20, 1867, Evansville Citizen, p. 1, col. 7, Evansville,

Wisconsin

DIED.

In Evansville, Wis., Saturday April 1st, 1871, Mrs. Stella Howard, mother of Mrs. G. S. Plasted, in the 84th year of her age. The deceased was taken to Beloit, Tuesday morning, for interment.

April 5, 1871, Evansville Review, p. 4, col. 1, Evansville, Wisconsin

Mr. D. H. Page has sold his 12 acre lot, just out the western limits of town, to Mr. J. F. Howard, of Magnolia, for $2,200.

June 2, 1880, Evansville Review, p. 3, col. 2, Evansville, Wisconsin

aed 0, a
y
n d le
of o
l, vd le re

—Rev. Geo. Howard, a Second adventist preacher, died at his home in Magnolia at about 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, March the 11th. Mr. Howard preached the Sunday previous, and during the week was attacked with a malignant form of bowel complaint, (as we are told.) Medical aid was speedily procured, but nothing would avail, and he passed to his reward.
He was an exemplary christian man and a citizen whom all loved. His death is sadly deplored by a wide circle of friends and acquaintance, both in the church of which he was a member, and in the community where he has lived the most of his days.

March 18, 1882, Evansville Review, p. 1, col. 3,

Evansville, Wisconsin

ar-
re-

he ge,
ice ish ks in et w, le ist

a or y

of ie
rd r. y
st

a 5, d
st r
st

l-

A Pleasant Family Reunion.

One of the most pleasant gatherings of the season was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Howard on Wednesday evening of this week, the occasion being the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Howard.

There were present on the occasion all the brothers and sisters of the bride who have been separated for the past twenty-eight years, and who took this occasion to assemble once more to enjoy the pleasures of a family reunion.

The members of the family present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Howard and Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Clifford of this village; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Leonard, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Mrs. Marion Emmonds, of Cresco, Iowa; Mr. R. H. Leonard, of Minneapolis, Minn.; and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Leonard, of Lake City, Minn.

There were also present from abroad Mr. and Mrs. S. Lee and daughter, of Janesville, and Warren Howard and wife of Albany.

A happy feature in this case was that while it was the silver wedding of the oldest sister it was the birthday of the youngest brother, Harvey.

The presents were numerous and beautiful, and the occasion was one that will be long remembered with pleasure by the participants.

bel
bod
nig
Bak ing of t
diat whi stea
got cam
The
the hose
the head
save Leh
just hose
for t mach north were fire c
room whic peril ing a

April 13, 1884, Evansville Review, p. 3, col. 4,

Evansville, Wisconsin

—The Adventists of this section of the State, opened a camp meeting in the grove just north of Jacob West's residence, at the head of Main street, Saturday afternoon. We were upon the ground Sunday afternoon and found Miss Scoville, of Magnolia preaching to quite a good sized audience that had assembled under a large canvass tent. The audience, we should judge, was mainly from the village, and everything was decorous and orderly, and the sermon was full of practical christian thought. Miss Scoville is an earnest christian worker, and speaks from an heart overflowing with christian love and fellowship. The speakers present on Sunday, in addition to Miss Scoville, were Mr. Howard of Magnolia and Mr. Barber of Cooksville. Elders Sheldon and Fawcett were expected to be present during the week. Services were held Sunday evening and are to be continued during the week—afternoon and evenings. The State is divided into four districts; this section being known as the South-eastern District. There are in the State forty churches and thirty ministers, with a considerable membership.

The cool air of Monday evening caused a good many vacant seats, and necessitated closely buttoned ulsters. The services opened with social exercises, led by Elder Geo. Howard, and were followed by a sermon by Elder Barber of Cooksville, from Mathew, 24:14. The speaker warmed up in his subject, but presented no new features from the old-time adventists. The remarks were characterized with zeal, and a heart fully devoted to the subject of Christ's second appearance upon earth.

September 15, 1888, Evansville Review, p. 1, col.

4, Evansville, Wisconsin

Walter Woolcut, of Magnolia brings suit against G. H. Howard for damage done by the latter's dog on the person of the plaintiff.

August 2, 1892, Evansville Review, p. 1, col. 3, Evansville, Wisconsin

—James Howard is getting plans and estimates for building a good, modern residence, on the lot purchased of J. R. West, some years ago. He will begin as early as the season will admit of.

January 17, 1893, Evansville Review, p. 1, col. 2, Evansville, Wisconsin

Emmett Howard of Marshalltown, Iowa, who is a student at the University of Wisconsin, spent Sunday with his cousin, Mrs. Fred Gillman.

February 3, 1906, The Badger, Evansville, Wisconsin

Mrs. Howard of Magnolia who has been so very ill since Christmas with blood poison, has been spending a couple of weeks in this city with her sister Mrs. Nay Gillman.

F
l
a p

March 25, 1899, The Badger, p. 1, col. 2, Evansville, Wisconsin

The Misses Maude Fessenden, Eva Howard, Ida Shurrum, and Jennie Crow returned to Whitewater Normal, last Saturday.

January 11, 1907, Enterprise, p. 3, col. 5, Evansville, Wisconsin

George Henry Howard will go to Chicago this evening with a shipment of sheep. He obtained a permit from the governor of the state to drive his sheep into the Evansville yards over the snow.

December 17, 1914, Evansville Review, p. 5, col. 2, Evansville, Wisconsin (permission was necessary because of a hoof and mouth disease epidemic in the area.)

ment
ery

STOCK SALE

ment

Being overstocked, the undersigned will sell at public auction, at the Evansville Stock Yards, on Saturday, October 20, at one o'clock p. m., the following stock, consisting of seventeen heifers, two years old, mostly Holsteins, part springers, five yearling heifers, ten yearling steers, one two year old steer, two good work horses.

Terms of Sale: One year's time on good bankable notes, with interest at the rate of six per cent.

George Henry Howard & Son.
D. F. Finnane, Auctioneer.

Wisconsin

October 11, 1917, Evansville Review, Evansville,

Mrs. Harvey Howard

Mrs. Harvey Howard died at the family home in this village Monday, September 2, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, at the age of seventy-two years and ten days. She had passed a restless night, complaining at times of severe pains, and her husband and daughter, Myrtle, were constantly at her side. She apparently fell asleep a short while before she died, and passed away without any visible suffering.

The deceased was a lady highly loved and respected by all with whom she came in contact, and was a faithful and devoted mother in the home and a true Christian, and her absence from the midst of family and friends will be deeply missed. She bore her sufferings bravely to the end.

Mrs. Howard was taken ill about four years ago, when a complication of diseases set in, and during the past seven weeks had been confined to her bed. She had been continually under the care of physicians with hopes that her health would be improved, but during the past year little hope was entertained by the physicians.

Services were held from the home Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, the obsequies being conducted by Rev. J. S. Schroder, pastor of the Trent Baptist Church, and to-day the remains were taken to Lennox, S. D., where interment will be made beside her parents, daughter and other relatives.

The sympathy of the entire community is with the husband and family.

Angeline Waldo was born near Rome, Wis., August 23, 1846, where she grew to womanhood. She was united in marriage to Harvey Howard December 7, 1867, at Evansville, Wis. To this union seven children were born, one of them, Mrs. J. W. Dunn, who died at Trent eight years ago next November. The remaining are: Fred, of Pocatello, Idaho; Jesse, of Sanborn, Minn.; Herbert, of Madison, S. Dak.; Mrs. Noahr, of Craig, Iowa; Mrs. George Lester, of Trent, and Myrtle, a teacher in the public school of Duluth, Minn.

She, with her family, moved from Wisconsin to Lennox in March, 1888, where they resided until five years ago, when they moved to Trent.

Leaving, beside her husband and six children, eleven grandchildren, one great-grandchild, two brothers and a sister to mourn her loss. She was a member of the Methodist church.—Trent. S. Dak., News.

BAPTIST CHURCH

William P. Pearce, Minister

Harvest Home Thanksgiving Service next Sunday morning at 10:30. The church will be decorated with fruits, vegetables, cereals. All who wish to contribute toward the decorations will send it to the church Sunday afternoon or evening. Let the members and friends bring jars of fruit and vegetables for the aged and orphans. The pastor will preach an appropriate sermon.

Sunday School at 11:45. Young People's, 6.30. No evening service. There will be a service at Union Baptist Church at 7:45. This, too, will be a Thanksgiving Service.

Prayer meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. Annual business meeting September 25. Election of officers in-

MRS. HOWARD OVERCOME BY GAS

Coal Gas Asphyxiates. Death Would Have Resulted But For Timely Aid

But for the timely visit of Mr. Geo. Thurman, Mrs. Altha Howard of west Main Street of this city, would have been asphyxiated last Monday afternoon. Mrs. Howard lives alone on Main street, and Monday due to some mishandling of the stove dampers, the house became filled with coal gas sufficient to have caused Mrs. Howard's death had she not been rescued while yet in a sub-conscious state.

During Monday forenoon, Mrs. Thurman who lives next door, had not noticed Mrs. Howard around and in the course of the morning had telephoned to Mrs. Earle Gibbs, asking if Mrs. Howard was known to be sick or had gone visiting. Mrs. Gibbs did not exactly know but it was supposed that Mrs. Howard had gone out to visit a sister who also lives in Evansville. However in the course of the afternoon, the sister was met on the street and further inquiry showed that Mrs. Howard had not been visiting there. The more Mrs. Thurman thought of it, the more convinced she became that Mrs. Howard must have been taken ill and so about five o'clock in the afternoon, she sent George Thurman over to find out. Mr. Thurman found the house locked and couldn't arouse anyone. He rapped on the windows and finally thought that he heard someone inside groaning. He then forced an entrance and found the house filled with coal gas fumes and Mrs. Howard prostrated. The house was immediately opened and ventilated and medical assistance summoned.

It was reported late yesterday that Mrs. Howard was much better and would recover in a few days. It is believed that a very few minutes longer in the gas would have placed Mrs. Howard beyond the need of medical help.

Gray,
Eleanor led the dollar e boys an campaign larger p engaged class sc
whole c

The c
the cam
every w

MRS. ELIZA GREEN

OBITUARY

Altha Theresa Leonard was born in Connecticut July 26th, 1838. At three years of age she came with her parents overland to Magnolia, Wis. She was united in marriage April 16th, 1859, to James F. Howard of Magnolia. To this union were born one son, Harry B. Howard of Carney, Okla., and one daughter, Mrs. Eva J. Van Patten of Chetek, Wis. In the year 1878 they removed to LuVerne, Minn., where they resided a few months, again returning to Evansville, which was her place of residence until time of her decease, May the 4th, 1921. Mr. Howard died twenty-eight years ago.

The deceased leaves besides son and daughter, several grandchildren, and a large number of friends who will miss her from their fellowship. She was a woman of fine spirit and character and her ideals and expectations those of a constant follower of the Captain of Salvation. The funeral services were held at 2:30 Friday afternoon at the home on South First street, Rev. A. W. Barnlund of the Methodist church having charge.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank the many friends floral offerings through the sickness and neighbors for their kindness and and death of our beloved mother and grandmother.

Mrs. F. Van Patten,
Mrs. Earl Gibbs,
Mrs. Clarence Hall.

May 12, 1921, Evansville Review

GEORGE HENRY HOWARD

1860—1925

George Henry Howard, life long resident of Rock County passed away at the Mercy Hospital in Janesville, Wednesday afternoon after an illness of only six days.

Mr. Howard leaves to mourn his death, three children, Mrs. W. D. Dougherty, and Grant Howard of Magnolia, and Mrs. Warren Porter of Cooksville.

At the time of going to press funeral arrangements had not been completed.

April 6, 1925, Evansville Review

NARROW ESCAPE OF HOWARD BOYS ON R. R. CROSSING

The three sons of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Howard, of the town of Magnolia aged 13, 11 and ten years had a narrow escape yesterday at noon when their Ford truck which they were driving to town stalled on the railroad crossing east of town just as the noon passenger was coming in from Janesville. The boys however, had the presence of mind to jump clear of the truck before it was struck, thus saving their lives, without doubt, as the truck was entirely demolished.

August 9, 1928, Evansville Review, p. 1, col. 5, Evansville,

Wisconsin

ELIZABETH HOWARD BECOMES BRIDE OF HUBERT N. SLATER

Miss Elizabeth Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Howard, route 3, became the bride of Hubert N. Slater, Cambridge, son of E. K. Slater, Milwaukee, at ceremonies performed at the home of the bride's parents Saturday afternoon by the Rev. D. Q. Grabill, Ft. Atkinson, a former pastor of the Evansville congregational church.

Miss Lillie Mae Dougherty, cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Joseph Schissler, Milwaukee, a classmate of the bridegroom, as best man.

Mrs. Rollin Lentzner, Wauwatosa, a sister of the bridegroom, played Mendelssohn's wedding march.

Miss Howard was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white silk crepe and lace gown, the wedding dress her mother wore at her wedding September 30, 1912, at which the Rev. Grabill also officiated. The bride also wore the tulle veil of her aunt, Mrs. Earl Fellows, and carried an arm bouquet of talisman roses.

The bridesmaid's gown was of blue lace, and her bouquet was of pink roses.

A reception for fifty guests followed the ceremony.

Mrs. Slater was graduated from Evansville high school in 1932 and attended the University of Wisconsin for two years. After her graduation from the Janesville business college in 1936, she became bookkeeper for the Merrick Dairy company, Janesville.

The bridegroom was graduated from Wauwatosa high school in 1932 and Ripon college in 1936, and has since been employed by the Cambridge News, Cambridge.

CAROL CROAKE BRIDE

OF GEORGE L. HOWARD

(Continued from page one)

Warren Howard, brother of the groom, acted as best man. The home was attractively decorated for the occasion with ferns and mixed spring flowers.

The bride wore a dusty rose acetate gown with dubonnet accessories and carried an arm bouquet of white carnations and sweet peas. Mrs. Thompson's gown was gray and topaz crepe with navy blue accessories. She wore a corsage of pink sweet peas.

The ceremony was followed by a wedding luncheon served to 30 guests comprising the immediate families and a few friends by the Misses Mary Ann Gillies, Harriet Fellows, Betty Roderick, Borghild Haakenson, and Marion Noyes.

The bride was graduated from the Evansville high school in 1933 and since has been employed as saleslady in the Ben Franklin store. The groom, who was graduated in 1933, is associated with his father on the Howard farm, four miles south of the city in Magnolia township.

Following a short wedding trip to Chicago, the newlyweds returned to Evansville to reside in a new apartment in the Grant Howard residence. The bride has been honored at a number of showers given by friends here during the past two weeks.

CAROL CROAKE BRIDE OF GEORGE L. HOWARD

Local Couple Married Saturday In Walter Williams Home by Congregational Pastor

Miss Carol Isabel Croake, daughter of Mrs. Mae Croake, this city, became the bride of George L. Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Howard, route 3, at a single-ring ceremony performed here at 3 p.m. Saturday in the home of the bride's grandfather, Walter Williams, 21 Montgomery court, by the Rev. Grant V. Clark, pastor of the local Congregational church.

Mrs. Howard Thompson, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and (Continued from page one)

March 16, 1939, Evansville Review, p. 1 & 8, Evansville, Wisconsin

FORMER LOCAL WOMAN PASSES LAST FRIDAY

Mrs. Frank Van Patten, 85, Dies In Chetek; Funeral Rites and Burial There

Mrs. Frank VanPatten, 85, Chetek, former Evansville resident died last Friday in Chetek where she and Mr. VanPatten have resided since 1911.

Mrs. Van Patten, formerly Miss Eva J. Howard, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Howard, was born in Magnolia township south of Evansville. Mr. Howard operated a general store at Magnolia Corners for several years.

Mrs. Van Patten completed a course in the State Teachers college in Whitewater after which she taught school until her marriage on March 12, 1884. The VanPattens resided in the city of Evansville until they moved to Chetek.

She is survived by her husband, a son, Howard VanPatten, Chetek, two daughters, Mrs. E. J. Gibbs, Evansville, and Mrs. C. N. Hall, Barron, eight grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren. Three grandsons served in the armed forces.

Funeral services and burial were held Sunday in Chetek. Mrs. E. J. Gibbs assisted in the care of her mother during the last weeks of her illness. She was joined there Saturday by Mr. Gibbs who went to attend the funeral.

January 24, 1946, Evansville Review, p. 1, col. 1, Evansville, Wisconsin

Miss Zora D. Howard Passes In Madison

Woman Well Known In City Is Brought Here For Burial Monday Afternoon

Miss Zora D. Howard, 106 S. Hancock St., Madison, died Friday at her home, following a short illness.

She was born in Magnolia, Wis., but had lived in Madison most of her life. She was formerly employed by the state. In 1926 she established a public stenographic business in the Washington building. She was a member of the First University Methodist church.

Surviving are a niece, Mrs. Forrest Durner, two greatnieces, Mrs. Jack McComb, Madison, and Joyce Durner, a government stenographer in Tokyo, Japan. Miss Marion F. Jacobs and Miss Howard had lived together in Madison for 35 years.

Funeral services were held Monday at 2 p.m. at the Frautschi funeral home, with the Rev. Allen P. McCaul officiating. Burial was in Maple Hill cemetery, Evansville.

Miss Howard was well known here having often been a guest of her sister, the late Mrs. Fred Gilman and since Mrs. Gilman's death, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Durner.

of
we ve
th de es
TI
th
m cc 12 ut
cc
M
W Z
a h
n
c b
n
t v s f
h e
(
l
l
(
t

July 29, 1948, Evansville Review, p. 1, col. 5, Evansville, Wisconsin

w, Evansville, Wisconsin

Mildred Allen, Bride Of Warren D. Howard

Ceremony Performed In Dubuque
Iowa, Monday August 16th; Residing In Magnolia

Miss Mildred Elaine Allen, daughter of Mrs. Earl Allen, 32 West Main street, Evansville, became the bride of Warren Donald Howard, son of Mrs. Grant Howard, route 3, Evansville, at a ceremony performed in Dubuque, Ia., Monday, Aug. 16. The bride wore a light blue gabardine suit with white accessories.

Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a two weeks' trip to Niagara Falls, Canada and northern Wisconsin. They returned home the latter part of last week. The bride, who was graduated from the Evansville high school in 1941, is now employed at Parker Pen in Janesville. Mr. Howard was graduated from the local high school in 1936 and is now engaged in farming in Magnolia township.

ATTEND STATE FFA

FFA CONVENTION

Kendall Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Howard, Rte. 2, Evansville and Donald Carlson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Carlson, Rte. 2, Evansville along with Erwin Zweifel, local FFA advisor represented the Evansville Future Farmers of America Chapter at the annual state FFA convention held June 8-10 at the American Baptist Assembly at Green Lake, Wis.

Highlights of the convention were the presentation of 294 Wisconsin Farmer Degrees to those eligible and the election of State Officers for 1964-65. The State Officer from this area for next year is Scott Traynor, Milton Union High School, Milton, Wis.

In a recent election, the following boys were elected as officers of the Evansville FFA for 1964-1965: Kendall Howard, president; Hans Schneeberger, Jr., vice-president; Don Carlson, secretary; Ken Howard, treasurer; 1965: Kendall Howard, president; Hans Schneeberger, Jr., vice-president; Don Carlson, secretary; Ken Howard, treasurer; Roy Heritage, sentinel and Don Krajeck, reporter.

June 18, 1964, Evansville Review, Evansville, Wisconsin

Kenneth Howard was the honored guest at a family dinner Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Howard. The former left Monday for Milwaukee to join the armed forces.

November 18, 1965, Evansville Review, p. 15, col. 1, Evansville,

Wisconsin

ELISABETH HOWARD SLATER

Elisabeth Howard Slater, age 70, of 4915 W. Spring Lane, Brown Deer, WI, died March 2, 1985 following a short illness.

Born April 19, 1914 in Magnolia Township where she attended school and belonged to 4-H Club. She graduated from Evansville High School and attended the University of Wisconsin. She married H.N. Slater in June 1937, and lived in Cambridge, WI for a few years. Later they moved to Milwaukee.

She is survived by her husband; a son, Dean Slater, and a daughter, Dorothy Sciammas, both of Milwaukee, and three grandchildren; two brothers, George Howard and Warren Howard, both of Evansville.

A memorial service was held at Wisconsin Memorial Park in Milwaukee.

March 20, 1985, Evansville Review, p. 2, col. 5, Evansville, Wisconsin