SOLD OUT—Messrs Finch & Son have sold their stock of Hardware and Tinware to Messrs. Humphrey & Eldred, the former from Baraboo, Sauk Co., the latter from Albany, Green Co.

These gentlemen come to our place practically experienced in the hardware and tinware trade. They are business men and we feel confident that they will add substantial growth to the business establishments of Evansville. The old stock is thoroughly overhauled and will be offered to the public in a manner that it will be an inducement for them to bestow a liberal patronage. Call on the new firm of Humphrey & Eldred at Finches old stand.

HUMPHREY-EAGER.

The unique Thanksgiving festival of the city was the dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Almeron Eager, in honor of their daughter's marriage.

But a few guests were present to witness the ceremony performed by the Rev. J. Scott Davis, making Lyle S. Humphrey and Gertrude Eager, man and wife. Miss Clara Smith was bride's maid and her cousin Mr. Clifford Smith acted as best man.

After the ceremony and congratulations the guests repaired to the dining room and partook of an elaborate dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey departed for their new home in Madison on the evening train. They were both born and reared in Evansville and they take with them the best of wishes from a host of friends.
