

The ladies of the M. E. church will give a lawn sociable at the home of Clinton Moore, two miles south of Evansville, ville, Thursday, August 2nd. A free bus to carry all who wish to go and you who have conveyances of your own please invite some one to go with you. The ladies are requested to carry such provisions as will go to make up a 15c supper and save further soliciting. The young people who have wheels go down and enjoy a good square meal after your ride. All who are acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. Moore know that it means a right royal good time. Leave M. E. church promptly at 3 p. m. Committee.

July 28, 1900, The Badger, Evansville, Wisconsin

Miss Blanche Moore, residing with her parents over the Enterprise office, is on the sick list.

May 2, 1902 Enterprise

Mr. and Mrs. Clint Moore were pleasantly surprised on Nov. 18, 1906, where about forty relatives entered their home unannounced, the occasion being their fiftieth wedding anniversary. The guests were well laden with baskets of good things to eat and a fine supper was served to which all did ample justice. During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Moore were presented with a handsome center table with a beautiful chair.

December 7, 1906, p. 3, Tribune, Evansville, Wisconsin

OBITUARY.

MRS. SARAH MOORE.

Died at the old home in Magnolia, Mrs. Sarah C. Moore, April 9, 1907, of heart failure, being 70 years and nine days old. The deceased was born in Ohio 1837, and came to Wisconsin in 1855. She married Ambrose Moore, a pioneer and civil war veteran of Magnolia, Wis., in 1856, who died in 1877.

The deceased was the mother of eleven children, two of whom were step children. All are living but one who died in childhood. The children of the deceased are all married. Two, a son Charles and a daughter Mrs. Clara Long, being present at her bedside at the time of her death.

This faithful old mother died as we may all well pray to die; ready, peacefully, and painlessly. It seems that a kind providence had designed to make her last days easy as her early days had been severe. Certain it is that a woman whose mother died when she was an infant and whose father when she was eight years old, then thrown out to grow up among strangers, a stepmother when she was nineteen and a widow with eleven children when she was forty, has earned a lasting peace.

* *
* *

April 18, 1907, Evansville Review,

The "Dresden" baker is the title of the new firm recently formed by Mrs. Etta Moore and W. S. Brooks and wife, recently of Seattle, who have returned here.

November 3, 1909, The Enterprise and Tribune, p. 1, col. 5, Evansville, Wisconsin

On the 1910 Evansville City, Ward 2, Rock County, Wisconsin, E.D. 107, Page 12B, surveyed on April 27, 1910; Frances V. is listed as the wife of Clark J. Moore. They have been married 47 years. She had 6 children and all 6 were still alive. They have 2 daughters living with them. They lived on North Madison Street. She was 65 years old. She was born in England, her father was born in England and her mother was born in England.

On the 1910 Evansville City, Ward 2, Rock County, Wisconsin, E.D. 107, Page 12B, surveyed on April 27, 1910; Clark J. Moore is listed as living on his own income. Frances V. Moore was his wife. They have been married 47 years. They have 2 daughters living with them. They lived on North Madison Street. He was 75 years old. He was born in New York, his father was born in Germany and his mother was born in New York.

Documents: 1910 Census

I think the two daughters were Mary F. age 30 and single and a librarian at the public library and Zelta? D. Moore age 25 and single.
Celebrate Golden Wedding (from Steven Briggs 6/29/05)

Mr. and Mrs. Z. C. Moore Married Fifty Years

Mr. and Mrs. Z. C. Moore, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding on Wednesday, January 1, at the home of their daughter, Mrs. H. A. Blakeley, 345 Second Street, Evansville, Wisconsin. There were between fifty and sixty guests present. Four of the six daughters were present, Mrs. Phila M. Blakely, the hostess, Mrs. Caroline E. Schroeder, of Marshall, Minnesota, Mrs. Edith A. Woodstock of Afton, and Miss May F. Moore of Beloit. The other two daughters, Mrs. Wealthie E. Ferrir of Los Angeles, Cal., and Mrs. Zelia D. Lindon of Philadelphia, Penn., were not able to be present.

At twelve-thirty, Mrs. C. H. Myers truck the first notes of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus to the strains of which the bride and groom of fifty years, accompanied by Miss Elva Moore, ring bearer, and Master Zeba Woodstock, the only grandson, as best man found their places fronting the assembled guests and facing the minister, Rev. C. H. Myers, who after charging the groom with taking advantage of the absence of other young men, who in 1863 were in the army, to pick out the prettiest and brightest young lady in the town, declared that under the new marriage laws they ought to be married again for the next fifty years, and then proceeded to read the modern ring service, to which the proper response was made and the happy couple pronounced husband and wife for a second fifty years. Following congratulations, Miss Edith Myers sang the touching song, "There is Silver, Now Where Once was Gold," after which all sat down to a bountiful dinner.

The house was beautifully decorated with green and gold, intermingled with pressed fall leaves.

Following dinner the social intercourse was sandwiched with a reading, "An Old Fashioned Medley," by Mrs. John Tullar, and an original poem written for the occasion by Mrs. Schroeder, and read by Miss Lenora Casford of Janesville.

Among those present from out of town were Mr. Arthur Woodstock, Afton, Robert Horn of Janesville, Mrs. Richmond and Charlie Moore, wife and daughter of Magnolia.

Among the guests were some who were present at the first wedding, Jan. 1, 1863, fifty years ago.

Zeba Clark, son of William Moore of Germany and Phila Wright of Vermont, was born Feb. 29, 1836 in Fulton county, Johnston, N. Y. At young manhood he went to western New York, Erie county, and attended Clarence Hollow academy. After three years journeyed to Johnston, Wis., and joined his old parents at farming. During the next three years they journeyed to West Magnolia, Wis., to their final farm home. Here he met Miss Fanny Rodd and three years later they were married.

With a younger brother, Clinton, Zeba enlisted Feb. 2, 1865, in U. S. Service at Janesville, as a private, under Capt. Leonard House and became a member of Wisconsin volunteers in Company I. He joined his regiment at Madison and went into Camp Randall and thence to Nashville. He was honorably discharged July 10, 1865, at Louisville, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore remained on the farm until, March, 1906. Since retirement they have resided in Evansville.

To this union were born six children, Phila M., Evansville, Wis. Caroline E., Marshall, Minn., Wealthie E., Los Angeles, Cal., Edith A. Afton, Wis., Mary F. Beloit, Wis., Zelia D., Philadelphia, Penn.

January 2, 1913, Evansville Review, p. 1, col. 1 & 2, Evansville, Wisconsin

Miss Josephine Dunphy and Edward Moore were married at Brodhead, Tuesday, August 18. They left immediately on a wedding trip to Milwaukee and other cities.

August 20, 1914, Evansville Review, p. 1, col. 5, Evansville, Wisconsin

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Dumphy was the scene of a merry and festive gathering Monday evening, when a miscellaneous shower was given Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moore, the bride and groom of a week. Seventy-five guests were present, and the young couple received a large number of gifts. Dancing was the principal amusement of the evening, the music being furnished by Benson and Ten Eyck. Mr. and Mrs. Moore will make their home at Edgerton this winter.

September 3, 1914, Evansville Review, p. 5, col. 4, Evansville, Wisconsin

After an illness that dated from last February, Zeba Clark Moore, highly respected citizen of this city passed away last Monday morning at 11:40, death resulting from a general breaking down.

Mr. Moore was born in Montgomery, N. Y., February 28, 1836, and came to Wisconsin in 1858, locating at Johnstown Center. In 1861 he purchased a farm in Magnolia township living there until 1906, when he came to this city. He was united in marriage to Miss Fannie B. Rodd, of Magnolia, January 1, 1862, and to this union were born six daughters, Mrs. Phila M. Blakely, of this city; Mrs. Carrie M. Schroeder, of Marshall Minn.; Mrs. Lena Ferris, of Los Angeles, Cal.; Miss M. Frances Moore, librarian at Redwood Falls, Minn.; Mrs. Edith Woodstock, of Afton, and Mrs. Dr. George Lindow, of Watertown, all of whom survive. The deceased is also survived by his widow and a brother, Clinton Moore, of this city.

Mr. Moore served in the Civil war enlisting in February, 1865, and was honorably discharged the following July. He was a member of the Masonic order, which will have charge of the funeral services, which will be held at his late residence at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and at the church at 2:30, being conducted by the Rev. Mrs. Copp, of Janesville, former pastor of the local Baptist church, of which Mr. Moore was a member. Interment will be at Maple Hill cemetery.

July 13, 1916, Evansville Review, p. 1,

Evansville, Wisconsin

ART. MOORE HAS HAND SHOT OFF

Art. Moore had his right hand shot off by the discharge of a gun, Sunday afternoon, on the marsh in the Milbrandt vicinity, where he, accompanied by Dean Spencer and Oscar Moe, had gone on a little pleasure trip.

After the accident, the three men hurried to their car, which was about a mile away, and came to town, where it was found that the only local doctor in town was Dr. Smith, and he was busy caring for Clyde Courtier, who, less than an hour earlier, had suffered a broken ankle at Lake Kegonsa.

Dr. Pember and son, and Dr. Snodgrass were summoned from Janesville, and with the assistance of Miss Wedles, the special nurse at Smith's hospital, the remainder of the right hand was amputated at the wrist.

Mr. Moore was taken to the home of his mother, Mrs. Clinton Moore, on South Madison street, prior to the arrival of the doctors from Janesville. He suffered such intense pain that an opiate had to be given him.

And
edu the T pro
the sch lea is aug tion tog soc hol gal ase its ba an th lo su so iz or he so al id in pe

June 14, 1917, Evansville Review, p. 1, col. 3,

Evansville, Wisconsin

OBITUARY

The death of Mrs. Chas. Moore occurred at her home on Mill St. at 7:10 p.m. Thursday evening. She had been seriously ill for only a week although she had been in failing health for several years.

Fanny P. King was born in Janesville, Sept. 12, 1852. When sixteen years old her family moved near Milton, where she was married to Chas. S. Moore, November 2, 1871.

They moved to Evansville in 1882.

The husband and three children survive. The children are Mark V. Moore, Mrs. Frank Holmes, and Mrs. Will Allen. There are also four grandchildren, Alton and Robert Allen, Morris and Doris Moore; and one brother, Will C. King, all of this city.

Funeral services were held at the home Saturday at two p.m., Rev. O. W. Smith, pastor of the Congregational church had charge of the services. Interment in Maple Hill Cemetery.

In the passing of Mrs. Moore a vacant place is left in the hearts of many friends, who through long years of association have learned to love and appreciate a woman of many sterling merits and lovable attributes.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all neighbors and friends who offered to and did assist us in our bereavement, also for the beautiful floral tributes that expressed a message of sympathy. Chas. S. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Moore, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Holmes.

December 2, 1920, Evansville Review, p. 5, col. 3, Evansville, Wisconsin

FORMER LOCAL GIRL WEDS ALBANY MAN

Miss Marion Moore Married to Harry Carroll at Ceremony Performed Here Tues.

Miss Marion Moore, former local girl and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Moore, Evansville, became the bride of Harry Carroll, Albany, at a ceremony performed here at 7 a. m., Tuesday in St. Paul's Catholic church by the Rev. C. E. McCullow. They were attended by Miss Doris Moore, sister of the bride, and Ivan Whalen, Albany.

The bride was attired in a gown of blue chiffon and the bridesmaid in a dress of flowered taffeta silk. The ceremony was followed by a wedding breakfast served to immediate relatives at Frank's Cafe after which the bridal couple left on a short wedding trip to the northern part of the state.

Mrs. Carroll was graduated from Evansville high school in 1925 and completed a course at the Janesville Business college in 1928. She has since been employed as stenographer and bookkeeper in the Lewis and Simonson insurance office at Janesville. Mr. Carroll, a graduate of the Albany high school, attended Marquette university at Milwaukee. He is now employed as manager of the purchasing department of the Fisher Body company, Janesville.

The bridal couple will make their home at 510 Fourth avenue, Janesville.

C ab

sm sh

pa wa

ha

he

to ing

h

May 22, 1930, Evansville Review, p. 1, col. 5,

Evansville, Wisconsin

Miss Mae Moore, Washington, D. C., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Blakeley and mother, Mrs. Fannie Moore. Miss Moore and her mother will leave Wednesday for Washington, D. C.

d

s tl

n e

December 25, 1930, Evansville Review, p. 5, col. 2,

Evansville, Wisconsin

(Continued on last page)

(Continued on last page)

4-H CLUB DEMONSTRATION WINNERS

Demonstrating "Counter Irritants," Doris and Lois Tullis, top row, were awarded first place at the county 4-H fair recently held in Janesville. Anna Mae Rowald, to the left in bottom row, won first with her demonstration of laundering woolens, and Maxine Moore, center, second on "The Emergency Kit." The girls, all members of the Magnolia and Evansville 4-H clubs, were coached by Mrs. Harold Klusmeyer, shown at the right, who has assisted and coached during her eight years of 4-H club work 24 individual and team demonstrations 12 of which have been placed first and seven second.

app of :
the Milk
T peri ners
com

PE

City
I

Re
spec to di ing tion
of E has mob mor
A ing out cou

Evansville — Marvin Moore, 41, son of Mrs. Lula Babcock Moore, died this morning at the Wisconsin General hospital where he had been a patient for the past five or six months.

Born on Babcock farm in Magnolia, he was married 16 years ago to the former Addie Hamm, Union. They made their home in Brodhead for four years until moving to a farm four miles west of Evansville, upon the death of his father, the late Guy Babcock. Surviving are his mother, his wife; five children, Robert and Walter Moore, Chicago; and two sisters, Mrs. Sydney Smith, Janesville, and Mrs. Harry Carroll, Albany.

Funeral services will be at 2 p. m. Monday in the Allen funeral home.

Evansville

WISCONSIN THURSDAY, JAN. 25, 1945

Marvin Moore Dies In Madison Hospital

Funeral Services Held Monday Afternoon In Allen Chapel;
Burial In Maple Hill

... died at 7
... on East
... in poor
... at 2 p.m.
... home and
... ick funeral
... Clark, of
... officiating.
... emetry.
... was the
... and Mary
... b. 14, 1907,
... s Gibson of
... home on a
... a number
... the city to
... three years
... liated with
... d; a daugh-
... ago; and a
... Janesville.

Funeral services for Marvin Moore, 41, who died in a Madison hospital Saturday forenoon after a long illness, were held in the Allen funeral home at 2 p. m. Monday the Rev. Robert Beard, pastor of the Magnolia Advent Christian church officiating. Pallbearers were Elliott Fraser, Burchard McCoy, Dean George and Alfred Koepp. Burial was in Maple Hill cemetery.

Mr. Moore was the son of the late Guy and Lula Babcock Moore. He was born on his parents' farm 41 years ago, and had always lived there except for four years when he lived in Brodhead. When his father died about six years ago he returned to manage the farm until his health failed.

Besides his wife, who was the former Miss Addie Hamm, Union, he is survived by five children, Robert, Donald, Kenneth, Jean and Caroline; his mother; two brothers, Leonard and Walter, Chicago; and two sisters, Mrs. Sidney Smith, Janesville, and Mrs. Harry Carroll, Albany.

Legion Three

Three del Ap will be Legion held a the Le vice cc
the ev
Plan County here in evenin will be to be

Ruth Ann,

In looking through the list of names of Koren war veterans on Evansville history. I noted my name was not on it.

I served with the MED DET 151st ENGR C BN Korea March 1952 to June 1953

Thank You for the work you do on the Evansville History.

Donald

Moore