

Dissolution of Copartnership.

THE CO-PARTNERSHIP heretofore existing under the style of S. E. Norton & Co., Grain and Produce dealers, is this day dissolved by mutual consent. All debts and dues of the the Co. will be settled by J. T. Norton & Co.

S. E. NORTON & CO.
Evansville, Sept. 25, 1866.

The business will be continued by JOHN T. NORTON & CO. who will settle all debts and dues of the late firm. The highest market price will be paid for all kinds of farn produce, Cattle Hogs &c., at our white Elevator Warehouse.

Oct. 24. JNO. T. NORTON & CO.

January 9, 1867, Evansville Citizen, p. 4, col. 6, Evansville, Wisconsin

E. W. Nelson & Co. have been in trade nearly two years. They make pretty extensive purchases in Chicago and elsewhere. They have been quite prominently before the public through the advertising column of the CITIZEN, and the public are the better judges of their business, and the inducements to trade with them, than we.

January 23, 1867, Evansville Citizen, p. 4, col. 2, Evansville, Wisconsin

Johnson & Company have bought the warehouse of Mr. Nelson, and are extensively engaged in buying produce of all kinds and stock for shipment. The firm embrace the well known businessmen, Reuben Johnson, Samuel Norton and David E. Stevens.

September 18, 1867, Evansville Citizen, p. 4, col. 2, Evansville, Wisconsin

For Montana.—Messrs. Reuben Johnson and Samuel Norton left town yesterday morning for Montana, on a pleasure and prospecting tour. Their success will somewhat govern their stay, but they design to make a tour of inspection during the summer months. Mr. Frank Johnson and party leave this morning with teams for Cheyenne and the Black Hills. They have prospecting in view.

April 8, 1868, Evansville Citizen, p. 4, col. 1, Evansville, Wisconsin

EVANSVILLE MARKET,

CORRECTED WEEKLY.

BY NORTON & SHIVLEY.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

WHEAT—Spring No. 1. $1.10, No. 2. 0.95,
 WHEAT—rej. $.75.
 OATS—37 cts
 DRESSED HOGS—$5.75 @ 7.00
 LIVE HOGS—$ 5.00 to 6.00
 LARD—00 @ 18 cts
 BUTTER—Roll, 30 @ 85 cts.
 HAY—Marsh, $6.00 @ 0.00. TIMOTHY, 8.00
 EGGS, 25 cts. $\frac{3}{4}$ dozen,
 FLOUR, Spring, 8.50. Winter, 4.00.
 SALT—3.50 $\frac{3}{4}$ bbl.
 POTATOES—35 @ 40 cts. $\frac{3}{4}$ Bushel.
 RYE—\$.95 a \$.95 60 lbs $\frac{3}{4}$ Bushel.
 CORN—Shelled, 60 @ 10 $\frac{3}{4}$ Bushel.
 BARLEY—1.30 @

November 25, 1868, Evansville Citizen, p. 4, col. 2, Evansville, Wisconsin

—Mr. I. E. Norton, who has been operating in the grain business in Evansville for the past year, has returned to Evansville and will resume his former business in connection with his son, John Norton, as formerly.

July 13, 1870, Evansville Review, p. 1, col. 2, Evansville, Wisconsin

—Sam Norton, who is doing mercantile business in Meringo, Iowa, was in town Sunday, but left for Chicago and the East the same night.

July 20, 1870, Evansville Review, p. 1, col. 2, Evansville, Wisconsin

Mr. Jas. Norton and family have moved to LaPorte, Blackhawk Co., Iowa. Mr. Norton has been absent a month or more, his family follow him this week.

December 28, 1870, Evansville Review, p. 1, col. 3, Evansville, Wisconsin

—Mr. Sam. Norton has been stopping a few days in town. He left Monday morning for Merengo, Iowa. Mr. J. T. Norton has purchased his house on East Main-st.

April 12, 1871, Evansville Review, p. 1, col. 2, Evansville, Wisconsin

I. M. Norton, who has been in the produce business in Kansas, returned to Evansville last week.

July 17, 1872, Evansville Review, p. 1, col. 4, Evansville, Wisconsin

Will Norton, aged thirty years, passed away at his home here last night following a brief illness. His death came as a severe shock to his wife, formerly Miss Edith Hanson, and his two small daughters. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Norton of Brooklyn. He also leaves two brothers, John, who lives in the west and Joseph of Brooklyn. Funeral services will probably be held on Sunday.

December 5, 1913, Janesville Daily Gazette, p. 3, "Today's Evansville News", Janesville, Wisconsin

Wm. Norton Dies After Week's Illness

WAS EMPLOYED IN SHOPS
OF BAKER MFG. CO.

The death of William A. Norton occurred Friday evening about nine o'clock at his home on Church street.

Just a week ago that day he went to work in the morning, but was taken suddenly ill and returned home. The case was a difficult one from the first, so there was but little that could be done for him.

William A. Norton was born in the town of Brooklyn, April 8, 1883, being the oldest of three sons of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Norton. With the exception of two years spent in the west he lived at the Brooklyn home until Sept. 1, 1909, when he married Miss Edna Christina Hansen of the village of Brooklyn.

Since that time their home has been in Evansville. Mr. Norton was in the employ of the Baker Mfg. Co., where he had worked for nine years. He was a good workman and was respected and highly thought of by all the boys of the shops.

The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon in the Congregational church, conducted by the Rev. D. Quincy Grabill. The church was filled by the many friends, the center section being reserved for the men from the shops. The interment was in Maple Hill cemetery.

Mr. Norton is survived by his wife and two children, Fola Ethna, aged three years, and the baby girl, eight months old. His parents and one brother were present at the funeral, the other brothers being in Wyoming.