

M. L. Ellis is now living in his new home at the north end of First Street.

April 4, 1903, the Badger, p. 1, col. 4, Evansville, Wisconsin

M. L. Ellis has moved into the France residence on North First street, which he recently purchased.

April 7, 1903, p. 3, col. 3, the Tribune, Evansville, Wisconsin

Property owners on North First Street have added much to the looks and convenience of that choice residence sections by putting down cement walks which have just been completed fronting the premises of Rev. J. C.

Lees, Matt Ellis and Mrs. Aaron Jones.

October 5, 1911, Evansville Review, p. 5, col. 4

M. L. Ellis has sold one of his lots on the south side of Grove Street to Aug. Freuchen who is planning to build thereon in the spring.

February 1, 1912, Evansville Review, Evansville, Wisconsin

Wisconsin

M. L. Ellis has in contemplation the building of a residence on one of his lots on Grove Street, some time during the coming season.

Feb. 1, 1912, Evansville Review, p. 5, col. 3

Matt Ellis has sold his house on First Street to David Dixon, possession to be given in October.

April 25, 1912, Evansville Review, p. 5, col. 1.

Matt Ellis is excavating for the cellar of his new house on Grove Street.

May 2, 1912, Evansville Review, p. 5, col. 3.

Matt Ellis will move into his new house on Grove Street sometime this month.

September 12, 1912, Evansville Review, p. 5, col. 3

Matt Ellis and family have moved into their new home on Grove Street.

October 3, 1912, Evansville Review, p. 5, col. 3

David Dixon has moved into the house on First Street he purchased of Matt Ellis.

October 17, 1912, Evansville Review, p. 5, col. 3

Mr. M. L. Ellis has resigned his position as manager of the Grange grocery store. He has been with the company for a number of years and has at all times merited the esteem and praise of the customers of the store. His place is being filled by Mr. Willis Searles, one of the most popular men of the store.

February 13, 1913, Evansville Review, Evansville, Wisconsin

One of Evansville's amusement centers, the Crystal theater is now a thing of the past, the late owner, Geo. Levzow, having discontinued the business. The building which he occupied has been taken by M. L. Ellis, who will conduct an up to date grocery and meat market therein after the first of July. Carpenters are busy putting the building in first class shape and several of the fixtures are here ready to be put in place.

June 5, 1913, Evansville Review, Evansville, Wisconsin

M. L. Ellis is in Chicago today buying goods for his new up-to-date cash grocery and meat market.

June 19, 1913, Evansville Review, Evansville, Wisconsin

Geo. A. Mitchell, wife and baby are visiting friends in town. Mr. Mitchell was former proprietor of the old Crystal theater, located where Matt Ellis' new store is soon to open, but left here two years ago and bought out a moving picture house in Morris, Ill. where he has been doing a fine and profitable business. Now he has sold out there and has not decided just where he will locate.

June 19, 1913, Evansville Review, Evansville, Wisconsin

M. L. Ellis grocery & meat market opened in the Eager Block. (11 West Main)

July 3, 1913, Evansville Review. (Matt Ellis ran this market until 1930 and it was called the Ellis Market and Grocery. In February 1931, the market was leased to J. J. Olsen and Walter Hendricksen of Oregon.)

Miss Anna Montgomery, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Matt Ellis, returned to her home at Weaver, Minnesota, the last of last week.

October 4, 1917, p. 5, col. 2, Evansville Review, Evansville, Wisconsin

Ellis Grocery at 11 West Main Street

SKATING POPULAR SPORT ON FROZEN LAKE LEOTA HERE

With the skating room open from 3 to 9.30 p.m. on week days and from 9 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays, Lake Leota, which is well frozen over and now recommended for safety, is proving a mecca for Evansville's outdoor sports enthusiasts who are flocking to the park in large numbers for the thrill of gliding.

More than 100 were on hand Sunday to enjoy the healthful sport, according to M. L. Ellis, park custodian, who with the assistance of a few enthusiasts removed the snow from a section of the lake and made an ideal rink.

The skating surface is lighted every night and on Tuesday some 75 threw their skates over their shoulders and trooped to the park for an evening's enjoyment. A count of 30 was taken Tuesday afternoon.

January 9, 1941, Evansville Review, p. 1, col. 6, Evansville,

John's Lutheran Church Saturday Afternoon

Miss Marie Antoinette Hansen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Borger Hansen, 213 West Church street, became the bride of Fay Ellis, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Ellis, 125 Grove street at a double ring ceremony, performed here in St. John's Lutheran church, Saturday afternoon.

The marriage vows were exchanged before an altar banked with spring flowers, palms and ferns, with the Rev. Theodore Heimarek, pastor of the church, reading the nuptial service. Mr. and Mrs. J. Ralph Tringfield, Madison, attended the couple.

The bride wore a silk print dress of cornflower blue with a matching redingote of light weight wool, and carried a bouquet of roses, sweet peas and lillies of the valley. Mrs. Ellis also wore a gold cross necklace, which has been in the family for many years. Miss Bernardine Gillman played the wedding music.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony, at which the immediate members of both families were present. Mrs. Ellis is employed by the Parker Pen company in Janesville and Mr. Ellis is an employee here at the Midway restaurant. Upon their return from a wedding trip through northern Wisconsin, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis will reside on Grove street.